

---

Advanced Culturally Responsive Leadership Course

Capacity building for sustaining culturally responsive learning communities

DATE: December 3, 10, & 17, 2009 from 1:00 – 4:00 pm

AUDIENCE: This training is for district or building teams. We encourage multiple people from the same district and/or building (at least 3 people) to attend this course as a team. Building teams should have a district level representative. Each team must have 1 member who has previously taken Culturally Responsive Leadership (the first course.)

LOCATION: Center For Regional Educational Services (CRES)
1301 Bonnell, 3rd Floor Suite
Cincinnati, Ohio 45215

PRESENTERS: Seena Skelton, Ph. D. State Support Team Consultant
Melanie Horvath, Ph.D. State Support Team Consultant
Connie Reyes-Rau, M. ED., NCSP State Support Team Consultant
Wendy Strickler, Ph. D. State Support Team Consultant

This training is designed for district and/or buildings that are promoting the achievement of culturally & linguistically diverse students reflected in their district or building school improvement plans. Culturally Responsive Practice and Leadership are essential skills noted in the OLAC Framework and the Ohio Improvement Process. Culturally Responsive Leadership requires hosting critical conversation & engaging in focused planning.

Course Objectives:

- Extend understanding of what is meant by institutionalized bias and examine contributing factors
  - o Discuss the impact on student achievement
  - o Identify indicators in school systems
- Practice using analysis tools to guide team discussions
- Apply collaborative strategic planning to address areas of institutionalized bias

If you have questions regarding this course contact Seena Skelton at 674-4303 or seena.skelton@hcesc.org

Register online through STARS
<https://safe.ode.state.oh.us/portal/>